

SO MUCH MORE

Chorus      O God how shall you be named?
You are so much more than we could ever dare to dream.

1.    Mothering and fathering,
      Giving birth and protecting,
      Nurturing and empowering love itself.

Chorus

2.    Gentler than the falling spray,
      Stronger than the mountain face,
      Whispering and thundering life that is.

Chorus

3.    Pondering and proclaiming,
      Fashioning and creating,
      Sheltering and unfolding deepest mysteries.

Chorus

4.    Brighter than the morning sun,
      Deeper than the darkest night,
      Balancing and holding firm all that is.

Chorus
